

FACILITY PROFILE

WATER PIPELINE

The pipeline is the backbone of the water system, with more than ten miles of large diameter transmission mains supplying water from the Clackamas River to the treatment plant, and on to reservoirs and pump stations in Lake Oswego and Tigard.

10.5 MILES
OF 24" - 48" DIAMETER PIPE

serving up to ...
100 THOUSAND
WATER SERVICE CUSTOMERS

CONSTRUCTION COST
$68.1 MILLION

LEARN MORE visit www.LOTigardWater.org